This map is based on data provided by national agencies. The flooded area has been calculated using the HySea numerical model, considering the tsunamigenic seismic sources provided by UNESCO-IOC and NOAA (CATSAM) after an exhaustive review. This map has been used to define the area threatened by tsunami towards the development of tsunami evacuation maps and routes.